

RICH TRADITIONS – MODERN TECHNOLOGIES – GUARANTEED QUALITY

Yanka Kupala State University of Grodno

Yanka Kupala State University of Grodno is a major regional university complex in Belarus integrating all education levels. It is a big-scale scientific center of the region, a classical-type university acknowledged by the international community. It plays a leading role in the country's scientific, social and political life, being a regional center of training specialists, academic masters, personnel of top scientific qualification, who meet legal and other requirements, as well as expectations of customers and interested parties.

1940

founded

15 faculties

70 departments

4

colleges

16 labs

17480 undergraduates

404 postgraduates

MA course

146

postgraduates

550 international students

#2

Webometrics Ranking
among Belarusian universities

134

international cooperation agreements

392 research staff

Faculties:

Pre-university Department
Faculty of Biology and Ecology
Faculty of Engineering and Construction
Faculty of Innovative Mechanic Engineering
Faculty of Arts and Design
Faculty of Physical Education
Philological Faculty
Faculty of History, Communications and Tourism
Faculty of Mathematics and Informatics
Faculty of Pedagogy
Faculty of Psychology
Physics and Technology Faculty
Faculty of Economics and Management
Faculty of Law

Educational cluster

4 colleges

- The Volkovysk College,
- The Lida College,
- The Humanitarian College,
- The Technological College.

Regional Centre
for Testing and
Pre-University Training

About us

Management of key directions of the university activities is performed by 6 units: Studies and Methodology Department, Scientific Research Unit, Youth Upbringing Department, Accounting Department, Administration and Maintenance Department. Besides, 6 centers perform their activities in the university (Publishing Center, Information and Analysis Center, Center for Personnel Management and Legal Work, Healthcare Center, Catering Center, Public Relations Center), as well as a number of structural units which perform particular functions of analysis, prognosis, planning, decision taking, organization and control.

Almost 20 thousand students of all levels study at the university. Professional training of students, post-graduates and Master's degree candidates is provided by over 2000 teachers and staff.

University facilities include 39 buildings, 15 study premises, 6 hostels, a stadium, 4 tennis courts, 2 minor football fields, 6 sports halls and 9 fitness halls, a scientific library with 10 branches, 40 computer classes.

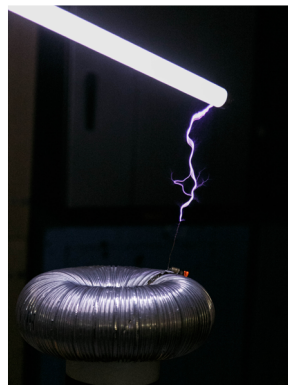

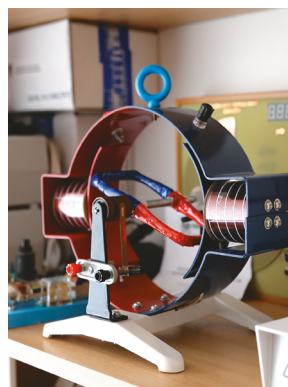

Educational institution Yanka Kupala State University of Grodno is the largest scientific center in Grodno region where highly qualified researches work. YKSUG has up-to-date analytical equipment for carrying out different kinds of research.

Each year more than 200 scientific projects are carried out at the university, 60% of them have practical goals.

Over 140 projects of young researchers win on Republican Scientific Work Contest each year.

Research results are used in industry sector, more than 1000 articles are being published in around 600 foreign and local peer-reviewed scientific journals including top-rated publications from Scopus and Web of Science data bases.

Science

Scientific and Innovation Activities

Scientific Research Activities

- The university's current innovative infrastructure includes: 6 scientific research laboratories, 2 centers and "Training-Scientific-Production Center 'Technolab'".
- More than 100 financed scientific research projects are being conducted, 60% of which is applied research.
- More than 200 implementations are presented into industry and education process per year.
- More than 600 articles are published in academic periodicals, including high rating editions of Scopus.

Production and implementation of scientific and research products

The production of import-substituting products (automated laboratory workshops) is mastered

Scientific and research work of students

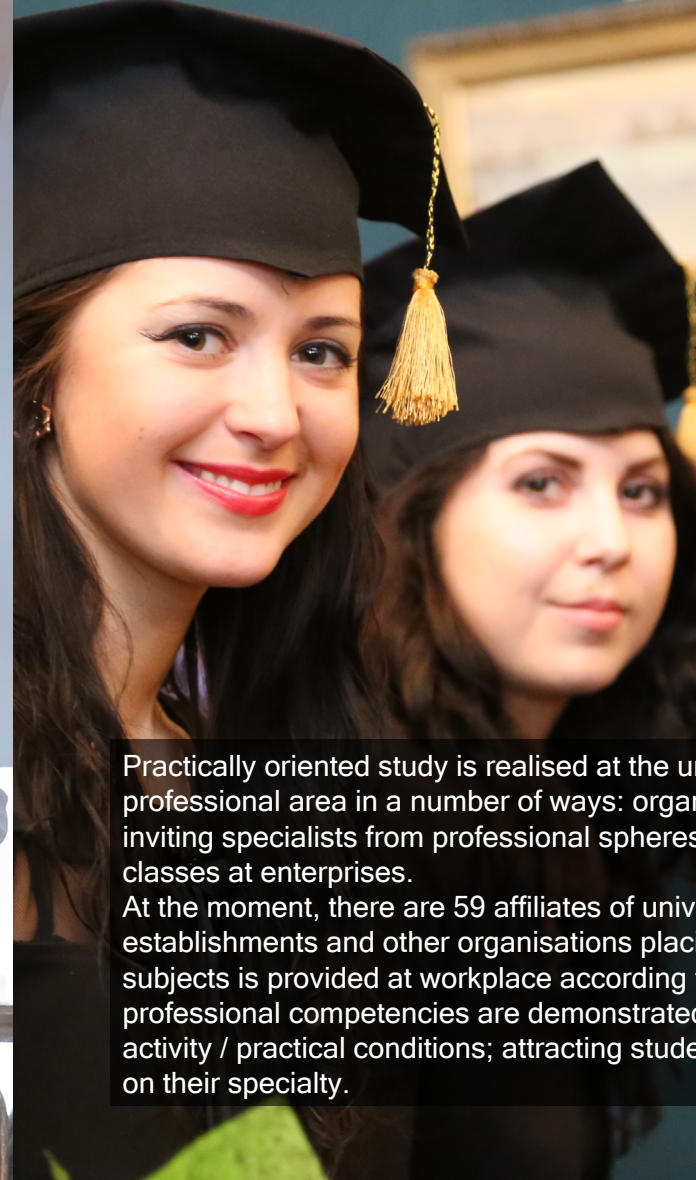

- The 1st place among regional universities, the 5th place among Belarusian Universities in the quantity of Republican contest of Student scientific works winners.
- Student scientific society with more than 1400 student participants.
- There are more than 120 projects for junior scientists who are the winners of various scientific contests and more than 1100 student publications of 57 scientific clubs per year.

Yanka Kupala State University of Grodno provides study programmes along a long list of specialties at two stages of higher education: 1st stage - Bachelor's degree programmes, 2nd stage - Master's degree programmes. Full-time, part-time and distant Bachelor's degree programmes are provided in 70 specialties on 15 faculties, 19 specialties integrated with high school special education programmes among them. Today, more than 40 scientific research and practically oriented Master's degree programmes existing at the university allow specialists to develop their competence. More than 1500 specialists have earned their Master's degree.

Education activities

Practically oriented study is realised at the university through immersing the students in their future professional area in a number of ways: organising affiliates of university departments at enterprises; inviting specialists from professional spheres for teaching purposes; using new forms of organising classes at enterprises. At the moment, there are 59 affiliates of university departments at enterprises, educational establishments and other organisations placing an order for personnel. The study of academic subjects is provided at workplace according to the future qualification; examinations are passed and professional competencies are demonstrated by future specialists under the conditions of practical activity / practical conditions; attracting students to out-off-class practical socially meaningful activities on their specialty.

Outcoming Mobility:

In 2015 Yanka Kupala State University of Grodno sent 256 specialists and 185 students to foreign universities and organizations of 24 countries.

Incoming Mobility:

In 2015, 228 specialists and 149 students of foreign universities and organizations from 23 countries visited Yanka Kupala State University of Grodno to undergo training/internships, give lectures within the programme "Visiting Professor", conduct classes, participate in conferences, seminars, round tables, projects, cultural and sporting events.

International cooperation

Yanka Kupala State University of Grodno actively cooperates with universities and organizations of neighboring and far-abroad countries, such as Russia, Poland, Lithuania, Ukraine, China, Kazakhstan, Armenia, Uzbekistan, Austria, Germany, Finland, Bulgaria, Belgium, Italy, Spain, Norway, Latvia, Moldova and Great Britain, within the framework of more than 130 international cooperation agreements. Staff and students of YKSUG visit foreign universities and organizations to undergo training/internships, share experiences, give lectures, conduct research and participate in international projects, exhibitions, conferences, seminars, cultural, sporting and other events within the framework of intergovernmental agreements, international cooperation agreements, Erasmus Mundus, German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD), BASERCAN+, IAESTE, etc.

Students and university staff take part in various sport events held in Grodno, Grodno region and republic of Belarus. Today Sport Club is an independent structural department of Yanka Kupala State University of Grodno.

Today Yanka Kupala State University of Grodno is considered to be one of the best institutions of Belarus in the rank of sport achievements.

University is proud of its Olympic champions:

- Tunenkova (Volchetskaya) Elena (gymnastics);
- Korbut Olga (gymnastics)
- Kurlovitch Alexander (weightlifting)
- Lukashik Konstantin (shooting sports)
- Shilova Irina (shooting sports)

Prizewinners of the Olympic Games are:

- Tihon Ivan (track and field athletics: hammer throwing)
- Tsilent' Valeriy (Greco-Roman wrestling)
- Pavlov Alexander (Greco-Roman wrestling)
- Pochinchyk Peter (track and field athletics: heel-and-toe walk)

Seven representatives of Yanka Kupala State University of Grodno protected the honor of the Republic of Belarus at the XXXI Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro:

- Ivan Tikhon (Hammer throwing)
- Elena Soboleva (Hammer throwing)
- Pavel Boreysha (Hammer throwing)
- Irina Yakoltsevich (Pole vault)
- Soslan Daurov (Greco-Roman wrestling)
- Maria Filonchik (Basketball)
- Vitaly Bubnovich (Bullet shooting)

At the University they pay great attention to extracurricular work with students, because the bright and rich student life contributes to self-realization, stimulates working activity, teaches effective time management, allows us to develop communication skills, learn to work as a team, to lead a team, which is the key to future success. To this end, the University created all necessary conditions.

Student life

Creative groups of the University:

«Honoured amateur collective of the Republic of Belarus» Variety Orchestra «Caprice»;
Folk Slavic martial arts club «Aridan»;
Folk collective of contemporary pop dance «Univer-dance»;
Fashion Theatre «Uni-Art»;
Modern dance show-group «Dartly»;
Studio «Theatergoers»;
Studio «Young Stars' World»;
Folk orchestra of folk instruments;
Folk song group «Yasnitsa».

Youth projects:

«Kalozha - live history voices»;
«Virtual Kalozha»;
«For the sake of life on the Earth»;
«Live history»;
«Let's open Belarus for the world youth»;
«Health marathon of generations»;
«Students' news»;
«Students' mediacenter»;
«Dancing Grodno».

Creative projects of the University:

Amateur contest among the first year students, called «Alma-mater - love since the first year» is a bright and emotional freshmen's holiday, telling about the University, a declaration of love for the native alma-mater and its faculties. It represents first impressions and first steps into the University life and, certainly, a demonstration of talents; Contest of beauty, grace and artistic skill «Miss University», the winners of which represent our University at the prestigious national and international projects;
Dance Festival-Contest «Style-dance. Energy. Beauty. Harmony».

Social projects of the University:

«Life without borders»;
«Open the doors to the World of Beauty»;
«Social Day»;
«Interactive portal «Accessibility»»;
«Give yourself to the utmost»;
«Dance for yourself».

University mass media

Newspaper «Grodzenski universitet» (Grodno University) has been published since 1986. It is issued once per month in 1000 copies, distributed free of charge among students and university staff. The newspaper is about them and for them. It is published in 6 columns in full color. The materials are published in Russian and Belarusian. Trying to reflect all aspects of university life - scientific, educational, cultural, sports, - editorial staff publishes the materials written by a professor and a student, interviews with the heads of the University, which indicates the authority of publications.

Corporate site of the University www.grsu.by
All the activities of the University are reflected in the World Wide Web. Internet resources of the University include over 50 sites, as well as personal blogs, social networking groups, and media outlets, on various aspects of educational, scientific and social life. The official site www.grsu.by displays the latest news, information on all kinds of activities: on the educational process (schedules for classes and examination sessions, teaching materials), scientific work (laboratories, research, projects), events held by the Faculties, as well as references to other Internet resources.

4 612 follower

1 285 follower

1 079 follower

1 062 follower

Belarus, Grodno, 230023, 22 Ozheshko str.
Tel.: +375 (152) 73-19-00, fax: +375 (152) 73-19-10 www.grsu.by mail@grsu.by